Amber Larson is director of quality improvement and medical specialties for Park Nicollet & HealthPartners. In this role, she has the opportunity to both directly lead care teams and to collaborate broadly across a multispecialty group practice to innovate and differentiate care. Her work has been published in NEJM Catalyst, BMJ Open Quality, and the Journal of Oncology Practice. She has been with the organization since 2005 and holds a BA in the History, Philosophy and Social Studies of Science and Medicine from the University of Chicago and an MHA from the University of Minnesota.
