

Cuts to the Medicare program of almost 8-10% may occur on January 1, 2023, unless Congress acts.

Question: If these cuts go into effect, what actions will your medical group take to make up for this loss in revenue?

The 134 groups responding to a July 2022 survey represent the nation's leading medical groups and health systems.